

Genaro Sanchez Ahuaxtla is from Mexico City. He is married to Cristina Limon, and they have three children, Rubí, Daniela, and Cristian.

Genaro jointed WWHO in July 2015 as Lead Pastor for Vida Nueva. In addition to his preaching as Lead Pastor, he also teaches classes, leads a Life Group, does counseling, and is in the Worship band. One of the attributes that God has gifted Genaro with is the ability to quickly have a personal bond with people, which is invaluable in his pastoral role. He also connects with people by teaching music lessons.

He decided to go into ministry because he was convicted by God calling him to ministry. Ernesto was the person who provided the invitation and opportunity. Prior to going into ministry he was in charge of building maintenance in one of the buildings in Mexico City.

Genaro says his wife is very supportive of him and helps by taking care of their home, she is also in the Worship band at church, she is his companion in all his activities. Their kids are very involved in the Kids programing.
